

Health Insurance Terms

Across

- [2] The conditions for which the insurance company will pay.
- [3] The price you pay for your insurance policy.
- [6] The legal document issued by the company to the policyholder (Purdue) which outlines the terms and conditions of the insurance; also called a "contract."
- [8] A person or organization covered by an insurance policy.
- [9] The money the insurance company pays the health care provider for medical services to you if you become ill or injured.

Down

- [1] The cumulative amount that you must pay annually before benefits will be paid by the insurance company. If the insurance policy indicates a "$250 deductible," the insurance company pays as agreed after you pay the first $250.
- [4] A request by you for payment by the insurance company of medical expenses that are covered under the insurance policy. The provider of a medical service will usually file a claim for you.
- [5] Conditions for which the insurance company will not pay; for example, cosmetic procedures are exclusions.
- [7] A group of medical providers that are contracted with a specific insurance company for highest payment levels.
